Approved For Release 2001/08/28 : CIA-RDPZ3B00296R000200160002-AGE

Ervin Subcommittee to Study Freedom of Press

By LYLE DENNISTON Star Staff Writer

Senate Judicary subcommitfreedom of the press and of a ry, "Selling of the Pentagon." series of recent official actions So far, only one specific piece against reporters and news me- of legislation is expected be anadía.

Sen. Sam .J Ervin Jr., D-N.C., asubcommittee chairman, ex-thinking of such a study for disclose confidential solurces or more than two years, and decidinformation.

attempt was made to force the sources said. CBS network to disclose how it tee is planning a broad study of made the television documenta- also expected to examine these eral agents of press cards or subcommittee source said.

government tried to stop news-subcommittee may offer a pro-Commission regulates, through papers after stories have appapers from publishing the se-posal in favor of full press free-"equal time" and "fairness doc-peared.

cret "Pentagon papers," and an dom for the broadcast industry, trine" rules,

The subcommittee study is lyzed during the investigation, a sue subpoenas to reporters or events. news organizations.

broadcast.

And, the use by police or fedother issues:

The power of grand juries and congressional committees to is other press credentials as a "cover" for watching over demonstrations or other public

In studying the Justice Desubcommittee chairman, ex- That is a bill, introduced pects to hold hearings that may March 23 by Scn. James Pear-by Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell against three newspapers which continue for more than a month son, R-Kan., with 13 co-sponsors, to control subpoenas to require published the secret Pentagon is fall.

to forbid federal courts, juries, newsmen to give information to study of the Vietnam war, the criminal investigations.

subcommittee will probe not subcommittee will probe not The effect on the freedom of only court orders to forbid pub-TV and radio broadcasters when lishing stories,, but also possible ed to go ahead with it after the However, it is possible that the the Federal Communications criminal cases to punish news-

> So far, the department has made no attempt to prosecute newspapers for printing stories did not actually use on the air, to be examining how newspa-outlets. pers got the secret study.

of broadcasters will be designed, formation to official investigations as and, to see if the scope of tors is now under review in the Supremc Court. A test case in radio because they are govern-volves an attempt by the governnot regulated.

hand over materials it gathered for its documentary, but about the Pentagon documents. several members of the House But two grand juries, in Boston argued that broadcasters enjoy and Los Angeles, are understood less freedom than other news

The subcommittee's analysis poenas to force newsmen or of the First Amendment rights news organizations to supply inment-regulated than for newspament to require a New York pers and magazines, which are Times reporter, Earl Caldwell, to appear and testify before a During the attempt to cite grand jury investigating the CBS for contempt for refusing to Black Panthers movement.